The H. R. Allen National Surgical Institute,

(Formerly National Surgical Institute,)

INDIANAPOLIS, INDIANA.

Founded 1858. Incorporated 1858.

The name has been changed, by adding the full name of the founder, on account of the constant swindling perpetrated upon the public by unprincipled doctors, who claim to have surgical institutes.

The New Institute Building

Is a magnificent structure, the most elegant in the State, the largest and finest of its kind in the world. It is thoroughly equipped for the successful treatment of all kinds of DEFORMITY OF THE HUMAN BODY, and many diseases which can not be properly treated at home.

Bargains in Books, Bargains in Bibles, Bargains in Stationery.

Read the following letter and "come and do likewise." You are invited to make the BARGAIN BOOK STORE your headquarters while in the city:

PERU, INDIANA, May 4, 1893.

John A. Allison, 54 North Pennsylvania Street:

DEAR SIR—The Bible was beautiful—and since it evidences your taste, as you were left to select it, we will always hereafter feel safe in your judgment. Sincerely yours,

(MRS.) FRANCIS EFFINGER RAYMOND.

The above letter refers to the new Self-Pronouncing Sunday-School Teachers' Bible. I sell it in store at $3.50, or $3.75 by mail. Other dealers would ask you $5.50 or more, and "never bat their eyes," unless it was at you when you had turned your back, after buying. I handle this special Bible in large quantities, and thereby get the rock-bottom prices.

I handle the Books, Hymnals, Discipline, Sunday-School Periodicals, etc., etc., published by the Book Concern, and am prepared to give lowest quotations. There is nothing in the line of Sunday-school and Church helps which I can not furnish. Come and see me.

RULES OF ORDER.

1. The Conference shall meet at 8:00 o'clock A. M., the first half hour to be spent in devotion, and adjourn at 11:30 A. M.

2. The President shall take the chair at precisely the hour to which the Conference adjourns, and cause the same to be opened with reading the Scriptures, singing and prayer, and he shall then have the journal of the preceding day read and approved.

3. The President shall decide all questions of order, subject to an appeal to the Conference; but in case of such an appeal, the question shall be taken without debate.

4. He shall appoint all committees not otherwise especially ordered by the Conference; but any member may decline serving on more than one committee at the same time.

5. The Secretary shall keep a journal of all the proceedings, and shall have the same, when approved, printed with the other minutes of the session, and a copy properly bound and authenticated as the official record of the Conference. He shall take charge of the journals and other papers of the Conference, preserve them with care, and suffer no person to take a copy of any paper during the interval of the Conference, except with the consent of the Conference.

6. All motions introduced by any member of the Conference shall be reduced to writing, if the President, Secretary or any member require it.

7. No motion shall be considered unless seconded.

8. When a motion is made and seconded, or a report presented and read by the Secretary, or stated by the President, it shall be deemed in possession of the Conference, but any motion or resolution may be withdrawn by the mover at any time before decision or amendment.

9. No new motion shall be made until the matter under consideration shall be disposed of, which may be by adoption or rejection, unless one of the following motions intervene, namely: To commit, to postpone to a given time, to lay on the table, or to amend, and these motions shall have precedence in the order in which they are placed.

10. When any member is about to speak in debate, or to deliver any matter to the Conference, he shall rise from his seat and respectfully address himself to the President.

11. No member shall be interrupted when speaking, except by the President to call him to order when he departs from the question or uses personalities or disrespectful language; but any member may call the attention of the President to the subject when he deems a speaker out of order; and any member may explain if he thinks himself misrepresented.

12. No member shall speak more than twice on the same question, nor more than fifteen minutes at any time, without leave of the Conference; nor shall any member speak more than once until everyone desiring to speak shall have spoken.

13. When any member of the Conference shall think that the discussion of a subject has been sufficiently protracted, it shall be in order for him to move that the vote on the main question be now taken, which motion, if seconded, shall be immediately put; and if two-thirds of the members present sustain the motion, the vote shall be taken on the question pending without further debate.

14. It shall be in order for any member to call for the yeas and nays on any question that comes before the Conference; and if the call be sustained by thirteen members, the vote thereon shall be taken by yeas and nays.

15. When any motion has been passed, it shall be in order for any member who voted with the prevailing side to move a reconsideration.

16. No member shall be allowed to vote on any question who is not within the bar at the time when such question is put by the President, except by permission of the Conference, when such member shall have been necessarily absent.

17. Every member who shall be within the bar at the time the question is put, shall give his vote, unless for special reasons the Conference excuses him.

18. No member of the Conference shall object to the passage of a brother's character on questions implicating his moral standing or administration, without giving him previous written notice of his intention and the grounds of it, unless by consent of the Conference, when in his judgement the circumstances justify the omission.

19. No member shall absent himself from the session of Conference without permission, unless he be sick or unable to attend.

On motion of J. H. Ford, said collection and subscription was placed in the hands of J. A. Sargent and J. T. Skull, to be presented to Dr. Mellender on the fiftieth anniversary of his wedding (September 27).

The following was read and adopted:

We, who have been pastors of Grace M. E. Church in Indianapolis, desire, in the interest of Methodism and the cause of Christ in the city of Indianapolis, to make the following statements and recommendations:

Grace Church is located at the corner of Market and East streets, only seven or eight squares from Roberts Park, Meridian Street, and Fletcher Place churches.

The surrounding community is composed mainly of non-English speaking people.

The church for many years has been declining in membership and financial strength.

The church has not given a competent support to its pastors during the past fifteen years.

There is a large territory east of Grace Church unoccupied by the M. E. Church.

From these facts we conclude—

1. That a Methodist Church is not needed where Grace Church is located.

2. That a self-sustaining Methodist church can not be maintained in that community.

3. That Grace Church is not able to support a pastor.

4. That the attention of the Locating Board of Indianapolis District be called to the location and condition of Grace Church, and that it secure, as soon as possible, the relocation of the church building to that part of the city east of Highland and between Washington and Michigan streets.

G. P. JENKINS,

The Board of Stewards made its final report and distributed funds to the Conference claimants. (See reports.)

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

No. 1.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION.

Resolved, That all money collected for educational purposes during the coming year in our Conference, except that of "Children's Day," be appropriated to our home institutions, and we recommend that the sum of $2,000 be apportioned to the charges of the Conference to be raised for educational purposes to be equally divided between Moore's Hill College and DePauw University. In every case in which the collection in any charge shall not exceed the apportionment thereto, the amount collected shall be equally divided between DePauw University and Moore's Hill College; in every case in which said collection shall exceed the apportionment, and no preference be expressed, the entire amount shall be equally divided between the two institutions; and in case a collection shall exceed the apportionment, and a preference as to the destination of any portion thereof be expressed, the excess above the amount of the apportionment shall be divided between the two institution in proportion to the respective amounts collected concerning which such preferences have been previously expressed.

The report of last year gave hearty endorsement to the American University and congratulated the church on the hopeful outlook for that magnificent institution to be located in the Capital of our nation. Since that time much progress has been made in raising funds and making friends for the institution. We commend it to the ministry and laity of our church as worthy their best gifts.

BOARD OF EDUCATION,

In its present consolidated form, is meeting the demands of worthy and needy students for the ministry in a most satisfactory manner, and we most earnestly request our pastors to see that "Children's Day" is observed in every charge, and that the collection be taken for this deserving cause.

GARRETT BIBLICAL INSTITUTE

Is one of the oldest and best known institutions of our church, and has fitted hundreds of young men for increased usefulness and influence in the ministry of the church.

We commend this school of the prophets to those who would be better fitted for the work to which God has called them. We recommend as Visitors to this school G. L. Curtiss and George Cochran.

BOSTON SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY.

This is also one of the schools of our own church and is highly commended to those who may wish to attend school in the East.

DEPAUW UNIVERSITY.

This child of the church, and the property of the four Indiana Conferences of Methodism, has been in a state of activity in all of its departments and schools during the past year. In her seven schools there have been enrolled 1,015 student, representing a territory covered by twenty-one of the United States, and three foreign countries. There have been able instructors constantly at their post of duty, discharging well the duties imposed upon them, and performing the work of instruction in an admirable manner. Thoroughness, carefulness and promptness are watchwords in study and instruction; gentility, observance of the Golden Rule, and mindfulness of mutual obligation are the rules of relation in the family of the University, and respect for the Word, reverence for God, and the seeking for the direction of the Holy Spirit, are the central thought of the ethics of this, your first-born school.

There were graduates in all the departments (103), who had finished the prescribed courses. These constituted a small army of picked men and women who went out to reinforce the already great army of moral workers in our land. Some of them have already found their way to foreign lands, where they set up the standard of the best culture and the purest religion.

The financial distress, the depression of values, the uncertainty of business enterprises and the great strain upon all the temporal interests of the country have not failed to reach the University. This has caused great uneasiness in the minds of the warmest friends of the University, and they have feared that the usefulness of this grand enterprise might be crippled. But it is possible we have come to such a time as this, that God may raise up new and strong friends of the University who shall give to it a new impulse, and start her on to greater usefulness than ever before. There are signs of promise. May these multiply, intensify and materialize.

We hereby acknowledge the obligation resting on the Conference to meet the pledge made in 1883, to raise $15,000 for the endowment of DePauw University, and we earnestly call on our laymen to assist us in redeeming this pledge by contributing this amount at the earliest possible day. The amounts already paid in on this subscription have scarcely been sufficient to meet the interest that has accrued.

The present year is opening with evidence of an attendance beyond our expectation. While at first we feared there might be a heavy falling off in attendance, on account of the shortness of crops and business complications, the promise now is that we shall have about the usual attendance.

We recommend that the Bishop be requested to appoint Rev. John P. D. John, D. D., President of DePauw University.

Eli F. Ritter, having tendered his resignation as Trustee, because of imperative business engagements, we recommend that his resignation be accepted and that Dr. L. H. Dunning, of Indianapolis, be elected to fill the unexpired term.

We recommend that E. B. Rawls and Reuben H. Moore be elected Visitors to DePauw University.

School of Theology.

The School of Theology of DePauw University is doing a noble work for the church through the careful preparation of young men for the ministry. During the year one hundred young men and women have been taking instruction in this school. In the graduating class of seven bright and active persons was one woman who received her degree, having in the most satisfactory manner completed the entire course of study. These were consecrated persons, conscious of the great responsibility of their calling and filled with the Holy Ghost. There was not among them one of whom the faculty had any fear of failure or doubt as to fitness and qualifications for the ministry.

One who will take the pains to carefully examine the action of the Indiana Conference when it included the entire State of Indiana and founded the University, and the subsequent action of the four Indiana Conferences from time to time repeated, the utterances of the Board of Trustees, together with the expressed wishes of donors to the funds of the University can not but be impressed with the significant fact that from first to last ministerial education of the best kind has been the purpose of DePauw University. In her School of Theology she is doing her best to redeem her pledge and meet the demand of the times for a cultured ministry baptized with the Holy Ghost. Brethren, the Conference can not go back on her pledges and do away with this kind of instruction. The Conference must rally to the aid of the School of Theology.

The school has lost during the year one of her Professors, Rev. H. S. Beals, A. M., who has been compelled to retire on account of failing health. But the Trustees have secured the services of Rev. Trumbull G. Duvall, A. M., Ph. D.. as Professor of Systematic Theology.

We recommend the Bishop to appoint Rev. Geo. L. Curtiss, D. D., Professor of Historical Theology in the School of Theology of DePauw University. We recommend that J. W. Duncan and F. S. Tincher be appointed as Visitors to this School of Theology.

MOORE'S HILL COLLEGE.

Moore's Hill College, under the presidency of Dr. J. H. Martin, has had another year of unexampled prosperity. A reference to the report of 1891 will show an enrollment of 164, an increase of sixty per cent. over the preceding year. The report of 1892 will show that the college reached an enrollment of 216, the largest enrollment for twenty years. The catalogue for 1892–93 shows an enrollment of 197. This, though not equal in numbers to the preceding year, was wonderfully encouraging from the fact that the average attendance was beyond that of 1891 and 1892, and the students were of an advanced grade. As an illustration of the superior quality of the body of the students as compared with other years, we make the following statement: Three years ago no class in analytic geometry; last year nine, and this year a class of eight. Three years ago, logic two; this year twelve. Three years ago, trigonometry five to eight; this year nineteen. Three years ago, astronomy four; this year eleven. These figures certainly indicate that we are coming more and more in touch with the best families in southern Indiana.

The year just opening, notwithstanding the drought and the great financial pressure, promises to equal—possibly excel—former years, the enrollment being considerably in advance of that of former years. A class of thirteen students expects to be graduated the coming commencement.

We are happy to report also in this connection that the new life that has come to the college under the present management has exerted an influence on the town, and improvements are the order of the day.

The present success is due to the untiring efforts of Dr. Martin, who for the last three years has been laboring constantly in the interests of the College, and through whose earnest efforts $2,000 have been added during the present year to the endowment fund. We believe that the blessing of God rests upon us, and that we can promise south-east Indiana Methodism that Moore's Hill College this year will make a record of which all will be glad to speak.

Departments.

In the college of Liberal Arts there are four full courses of study. First, a classical course of four years leading to the degree of A. B.; second, a scientific course of four years leading to the degree of B. S.; third, a special scientific course, with music, for young ladies, leading to the degree of B. S.; and fourth, a post graduate course of two years leading to the degreee of Ph. D. These courses have been strengthened, are systematic and thorough, and are designed to give the student the best mental discipline possible, and at the same time to fit him for the practical duties of life.

Normal School.

This department has been constantly growing. Last year the normal course was thoroughly revised, and will compare favorably with any school of its class. This school enrolled last year sixty-six students.

Commercial School.

This department was organized in 1891. The number of students who have entered this school and the kind of work done are indications of the wisdom of establishing this department.

Department of Music.

A regular course consisting of five grades, adapted to those desiring a complete and thorough musical education, is pursued in this department. The course is arranged according to the standards of the best conservatories of music.

Recommendations.

In view of the growing demands upon the school your committee recommend:

1. That an effort be made to raise in the near future $30,000 additional endowment fund for said institution, and that the President of the College and the Presiding Elders of the different districts constitute a committee to supervise the work.

2. That a series of educational meetings be held in this interest in such charges during the year as in the judgment of the committee and the pastors may be deemed advisable.

3. That the pastors and Presiding Elders be requested to use their influence with persons of wealth to secure donations and bequests in favor of the endowment fund.

4. That Dr. J. H. Martin be appointed to the presidency of Moore's Hill College and that Prof. C. W. Lewis be appointed to a professorship in the College.

5. That J. K. Thompson, H. D. Moore, Sampson Tincher, J. S. Stevens, R. Roberts, E. L. Dolph and C. W. Gorsuch be elected Trustees of Moore's Hill College.

6. That the following be appointed Conference Visitors: The pastors at Lawrenceburg, Greensburg, Hall Place, Shelbyville, Seymour, North Vernon, Rushville and Milroy.

To the Members of the South-East Indiana Conference, M E Church:

Twenty years' experience as Treasurer of this Society has convinced the undersigned that in the future, as in the past, the principal source of increase of the capital must come from bequests made by the members of the church.

These bequests can be secured more readily by the preachers than by any other agency. They are, therefore, respectfully urged to give this matter their most earnest efforts.

All other plans heretofore devised by Conference and by the Board of Managers for increasing the capital of this Society have proven only partially successful.

This little pamphlet, in which is printed the names of the Officers and Board of Directors, the Constitution and By-laws, in which the objects and purposes of the Society are fully set forth, also the report of the Treasurer for the year ending September 1, 1892, is published in the hope that it may be placed in the hands of those members of the church who are able to assist this most worthy and most needy Society, in the matter of bequests, and who can probably be induced to do so in their last testaments.

The few efforts which have been put forth in this direction in the past by some of our preachers have been crowned with success; and to this fact we are indebted for a large part of our present capital. Respectfully,

FRANK M. DOWDEN,
Treasurer.

ITINERANTS' SCHOOL.

To the Members of the South-East Indiana Annual Conference:

DEAR FATHERS AND BRETHREN—We, the Faculty of the Itinerants' School of the South-East Indiana Conference, appointed by you at your last session to take charge of, and perform certain work in the instruction and examinations of the undergraduates of the said Conference, present this our first annual report.

The Faculty organized and divided the work of the year, and arranged for the times and places of meeting immediately after Conference. A proper notification of the times and places of the sessions of the School, and the work required of each was given promptly to all concerned. The Presiding Elders greatly aided us in securing attendance of the brethren, and lent us their sympathy and influence.

The first session of the School was held in Greensburg, May 2–5, 1893. The eight members of the Faculty were present during the entire session, and all the undergraduates excepting one.

The second session was held in Columbus, August 22–25, 1893. The Faculty again were present and all the undergraduates excepting one. During eight days of the sessions, six were devoted to class study of the books laid down in the course of study in the Discipline, after the best methods. The work was so divided and studied that all of it was reviewed during those days. The undergraduates evidenced by their familiarity with their books and the subjects taught that they had given careful and thoughtful attention to them at their homes. These class exercises gave time and opportunity for a free discussion of the several books and topics. Two days were spent in written examinations on these subjects. There was an average of twenty questions on each subject, and they were so drawn as to bring out the real knowledge of the students. The grading of all papers was on the basis of one hundred as perfect. These marks will be read by Rev. E. B. Rawls, the Secretary of the Faculty, when the Bishop shall call for them in connection with the call of the classes.

The Secretary has provided a register in which he will preserve a record of the grades of the undergraduates. When this book is filled, it is to be deposited with the Secretary of the Conference for preservation.

The plan of the Itinerants' School is now in full working order, and only needs to be carried forward to a very excellent success. It is no longer an experiment, but a real thing, a practical thing that may be worked in any Conference and with any grade of students.

During the sessions of the Itinerants' School, a number of our brethren have visited the School and saw the mode of work. All such as have examined our methods and been in our recitation and lecture rooms, have been warm in their commendations of the purpose, design and methods of the School.

It is our faith that in the years to come you will see the great benefit of this work of the Itinerants' School. Some of the men who least needed this work have been the most prompt and earnest in availing themselves of the opportunity.

It would be out of character not to speak of the real hearty welcome given the school by the people of the churches in Greensburg and Columbus, and the excellent audiences who came out to hear the fifteen lectures on the evenings of the sessions, on subjects germain to the topics studied in the School. The laymen responded as though they relished the thought that they were to hear better preaching in the years to come.

Respectfully submitted,

THE GEARY LAW.

Your Committee on the Geary Law recommend the adoption of the following petition to Congress as our sentiments, to-wit:

To the Senate and House of Representatives, Washington, D. C.:

The South-East Indiana Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, assembled at Connersville, Indiana, on the 20th day of September, 1893, composed of 125 ministers, representing over 37,000 church members, respectfully petition your honorable body to immediately repeal the act passed on the 5th of May, 1892, known as the Geary law. We make this earnest petition, first, on the ground of justice and fair dealing. By solemn treaty agreement the Chinese now in the United States are entitled to the same treatment that is accorded to the citizens or subjects of the most favored nation. The provision that they shall register and take out certificates to assure their continued residence here, producing the testimony of a white witness to their right to be here, requires of multitudes of them an impossibility, and yet subjects them to imprisonment and deporation if they fail to comply with the requisition. This requirement made of them alone, in contradistinction to all other foreigners in the country, is a palpable violation of the treaty.

We furthermore petition for the repeal of this law because it endangers our interests in China. The Methodist Episcopal Church has 125 missionaries in that empire. It has churches, chapels, dwellings, school buildings, hospitals, printing presses, and other property to the amount of over $400,000. We have reason to fear that if the provisions of this law are insisted upon, our missionaries and property will be imperiled. The Christian sentiment of this country is opposed to this enactment, and we urgently beseech its immediate repeal.

Signed by order and on behalf of the Conference.

H. W. WARREN,
President.

LEWIS D. MOORE,
Secretary.

We recommend that four copies of this petition be signed by the Presiding Officer and Secretary of the Conference; that one copy be sent to the President of the United States, one copy to the President of the Senate, one copy to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and one copy be retained in the archives of the Conference.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

We, your Committee on Epworth League, make the following report:

The work of this department of our Church during the past year has been highly gratifying. The growth of this youngest child of Methodism makes it important that ways and means be provided for its still greater prosperity and usefulness. Therefore, we recommend:

1. A District League organization, a Conference League organization, and an Anniversary Session at each Annual Conference.

2. We recommend a systematic study of the Bible in each Chapter, and also a careful study of some portion of Scripture at each District Convention.

3. We recommend that, as pastors, we urge upon all our Chapters the importance of the authorized Reading Course.

4. Christ's Hospital, Cincinnati, asks one barrel of provisions annually from each Chapter. We believe the request reasonable and recommend that the Mercy and Help Department of each Chapter grant it.

We commend the earnest efforts of the officers of the Literary Department, during the past year, and heartily endorse the District and Conference Lecture Bureau.

We recognize the Epworth Herald as the only official organ of the Epworth League, and give it our unqualified endorsement. We also express our appreciation of the Epworth League page of the Western Christian Advocate.

We recommend the following named persons as officers for the Conference Epworth League for the ensuing year: President, F. S. Tincher; 1st Vice-President, A. R. Beach; 2d Vice-President, Mrs. Dr. Harryman; 3d Vice-President, Miss Ada Frank; 4th Vice-President, Will Northcott; Secretary, S. S. Cole; Treasurer, Elmer Scott.

Chairman.

DOMESTIC MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

The Board of Managers of the Domestic Missionary Society submit the following as their annual report:

The success of our work in the Indianapolis District Auxiliary during the past year has justified the wisdom of the Conference in organizing this Society. Missions have been established at six different points in the newer parts of Indianapolis. We have encouraging outlook for the future at these new centers of endeavor. The strong churches have made a respectable beginning in contributions of money for the support of the work.

Notwithstanding the fact that Auxiliary Societies have not been formed in three of the districts, we are thankful to be able to report that a beginning of Domestic Missionary work has been made in all the districts. In the city of Jeffersonville two prosperous missions have been undertaken by the Wall Street Church. It is hoped that all the districts will be organized as Auxiliaries, under the constitution of the Conference Society, during the coming year. We have agreed that all contributions to our treasury shall be expended within the bounds of the particular districts from which such contributions shall severally come.

The Board would direct the attention of local preachers, exhorters, Epworth Leagues and Woman's Home Missionary Societies to the fact that Presiding Elders are eagerly awaiting the tender of voluntary service for Christ in His Church in the destitute fields within our own Conference which are white unto harvest.

HENRY A. BUCHTEL,
President.

COMMITTEE ON WILLS.

Your Special Committee on Wills respectfully report that in the case of the will of Nathaniel F. Conery we recommend that the South-East Indiana Conference relinquish all its rights under the will to Mary Conrey during her life-time, and that Dr. Sargent and Dr. Wood be appointed to carry out the act of this Conference in the matter.

In the case of the will of James W. Anderson, we recommend that the whole matter be referred to Rev. Dr. J. A. Sargent, with full power to settle with the estate on the best terms possible.

GEO. L. CURTISS.

SUNDAY-SCHOOLS.

We are more and more impressed with the importance of caring well for the more than two millions of the young of our beloved Methodism. We believe that instruction in godly things should begin with the ability of the child to know. That the instruction of the home, when Christian, should be supplemented, and when other than Christian, substituted. And that therefore the Sunday-School, which looks toward this end has a most important mission in our church, and should receive the hearty support of those in pulpit and pew.

In reviewing the victories of the past year we can but rejoice; but yet discover that it has not been as efficient, nor the results as satisfactory as should be desired. We would therefore recommend that in order to reach better results, earnest attention be given to the selection of devoted teachers of ability; that care be exercised in the choice of literature; and where at all practicable, that some kind of normal training be provided for teachers in the schools of our charges (that heart and mind be greatly engaged in this most important work of God).

We would also recommend the apportionment among their respective charges by the Presiding Elders of the $550 asked of our Conference for the support of this cause.

T. W. NORTHCOTT,
President.

No. 10.

TEMPERANCE.

Your Committee on Temperance respectfully report, that—

We are in full accord with the action and expressions of the General Conference of 1892 on this subject.

We declare the liquor traffic as now conducted to be a crime against the individual, against the home, against society and against the nation.

We declare our unyielding hostility to its existence in every form, and in order to make our hostility effective, we recommend the organization of leagues in all our charges as auxiliaries to what is known as The Anti-Liquor League of Indiana, of which the following is the Membership Pledge; to wit.:

MEMBERS' PLEDGE.

"Without surrendering our party preferences or our individual views as to the proper way to suppress intemperence and vice, we do solemnly pledge and bind ourselves together, not to vote for, nor in any way support, any person for any office, State, county, township or municipal, who will not give satisfactory guarantee to the League, in writing or otherwise, that he will faithfnlly observe and use his utmost influence and ability to enforce the laws, and if elected to the Legislature, work and vote for advanced temperance legislation."

We also approve and commend the organization of leagues to rescue individuals from the toils of the drink habit, on Gospel principles and by Gospel methods.

FREEDMAN'S AID AND SOUTHERN EDUCATION.

The Freedman's Aid and Southern Education Society of our church is of growing proportions and increasing interest to both church and State. True citizenship, loyal and intelligent, is being substituted for disloyalty and ignorance. We recommend that every pastor take and read carefully The Christian Educator, that he may know the magnitude of this work, and that a zeal commensurate with its importance may attend him.

We recommend also that the $1,835 apportioned to this Conference be accepted, properly distributed by the Presiding Elders to the several charges, and by the blessing of God and the help of the church, we, as pastors, will raise the amount.

POPULAR AMUSEMENTS.

WHEREAS, There are frequent violations of that part of paragraph 240 of our Discipline, relating to popular amusements; and,

WHEREAS, The indulgence in dancing, card playing, attending theatres and horse races is unchristian conduct, forbidden by our rules and the word of God, and is inimical to the higher spiritual life.

Resolved, That as a Conference, we raise an uncompromising voice against all of these evils; and

Resolved, That in our pulpits we preach, exhort and denounce boldly against amusements that are sapping the vital piety of the church, and then if such violations continue, we are resolved to keep ourselves unspotted from the world, and the violators must be dealt with according to our form of Discipline.

WOMAN'S FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

At the recurrence of each anniversary of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society we have new cause for rejoicing in its world-wide work.

We recognize it as one of the chief agencies of the church to bring the knowledge of Christ to all lands.

We have just cause for increasing confidence in the wise management and growing power for good of the auxiliary in home charges, and we are persuaded that wherever an auxiliary is organized missionary intelligence is spread and every local interest of the church is subserved.

We would therefore urge the organization of an auxiliary society in every circuit and station, and pledge ourselves to cheerful coöperation in the same.

WOMAN'S HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

We repeat our hearty commendation of this great and constantly augmenting movement among our Christian women. It is grandly, with the blessing of God, keeping step in the home fields with the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society abroad. Its blessing to the church, in the development and utilization of latent forces, the pouring of light into dark places, and the reaching forth of gentle, loving hands to help the needy, is beyond measure or calculation. We would pray that it might have wide-open rights of way into all our charges.

Religious liberty and Christian civilization can not be maintained without the observation of God's appointed day of rest.

The enemies of this day are increasing their demands for its desecration; therefore,

Resolved, That we continue to do all we can to secure the observation of the Sabbath by all the people; and,

Resolved, That we rejoice in the victory for the Sabbath won at the Columbian Exposition when brought before the tribunal of the people.

THE VETERANS' AID SOCIETY.

The large increase in the amount of money collected this year for the Conference Claimants is an indication that there is a growing spirit of liberality toward our wornout preachers. The organization of the Veterans' Aid Society is also evidence that there is an increasing interest in the welfare of our superannuated preachers. We believe that the faithful carrying out of the designs and plans of this Society will bring yet increased help to these deserving servants of the church.

Having faith in its plans to provide homes for these veterans, we request the pastors to observe Veterans' Day, to call the attention of their people to the claims and advantages of this Society, and to solicit gifts and bequests to its cause.

Resolved, That the officers be directed to prepare articles of a Constitution for this Society.

Resolved, That this Society be authorized to raise funds that shall be used only in the purchase, erection and improving of veterans' homes.

Resolved, That five trustees be elected, who shall hold in trust all properties secured for the use of this Society.

Resolved, That this Society become a corporate body, and the officers be directed to file, in the proper office, the necessary papers of incorporation.

CHURCH EXTENSION.

In view of the wonderful success this Society has had in aiding churches, and the great needs in carrying forward the work of church building in needy but rapidly increasing populations, we recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

1. We commend the Board of Church Extension to the increased liberality of our people.

2. To meet the demands on this Society we will in our several charges strive to raise this year at least the apportionment which may be assigned us and as much more as possible.

3. We will avail ourselves of the helps provided by the Board in "Christianity in Earnest" and "Glad Tidings," and, as far as possible, give information of the wonderful work being constantly accomplished by the Society, believing that the generous hearts of our Methodist people will gladly and most liberally respond.

CLAIMS OF THE BOOK CONCERN.

We believe that every Methodist preacher's vows pledge him to loyalty to the Book Concern.

We believe that the press of our Church is an indispensable ally of the pulpit in the work of leading men to God and instructing them in righteousness and Christian benevolence.

We deplore the disposition manifested by some to regard lightly financial obligations to the Concern, and discern with sorrow the apparent tendency to abuse the privileges conceded by the publishing houses, in that only about 40 per cent. of the claims sent out by the Concern to this Conference have been paid.

We, therefore, recommend—

1. That a standing committee of one from each district be appointed to cooperate with the publishing agents in the collection of accounts due from the members of this Conference.

2. We recommend the General Book Committee to take such future action as may seem wise and practicable to protect the profits of the Concern for the use and benefit of our worthy veterans and the dependent widows and orphans of our brethren deceased.

TRACTS.

The Tract Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church has for years accomplished great and good work in the evangelization of our race. Its work has been done at small cost.

The statistics show that this Conference has for the year 1892 paid only $1.92 per pastoral charge, or but five mills per member. Many of our charges make no report. Let no blanks appear in the year to come.

We recommend that each pastor secure the amount of tracts allowed by the Society, and see to distribution of same.

We also recommend that the sum of $550, the amount apportioned to this Conference, be apportioned to the charges and an earnest effort be made to raise the same.

CONFERENCE CLAIMANT'S PLAN.

1. COLLECTION. Each congregation shall observe a Sunday to be known as "Veterans' Day," upon which the pastor shall present the Conference Claimants cause to the members of the church, and emphasize their obligations to the Conference Claimants. A collection shall be taken in the public congregation for the support of Conference Claimants separate from any other interest.

2. DISTRIBUTION. All moneys received for annual distribution in aid of the support of the Conference Claimants shall be divided into two sums: The first, consisting of fifty per cent. of the whole, shall be called the Annuity Fund; the second, consisting of fifty per cent. of the whole, shall be called the Necessitous Fund. All superannuated ministers, the widows, and children under fifteen years of age, of deceased ministers shall be Conference Claimants, unless the claim be voluntarily relinquished.

The Annuity Fund shall be divided among the Claimants upon the following basis: Each minister shall receive annually ten dollars for each year of his effective service; each widow shall receive one-half her husband's claim; each child shall receive one-fifth its father's claim. These claims shall be paid pro rata from the moneys in hand.

The Necessitous Fund shall be divided among the Claimants, whether superannuates, widows or children, whose annuities are insufficient for their needs, in such proportions as the Committee on Conference Claimants may deem equitable.

The gross allowance to each Claimant from the above funds shall be reported to and approved by the Annual Conference.

WHEREAS, The carrying out of this plan will require an increased income for the support of Conference Claimants; therefore,

Resolved, That each member of the Conference, except those who are superannuated, will be expected to contribute at least five dollars annually to the above funds, beginning with the time of their admission on trial.

Resolved, That for each year a preacher fails to pay five dollars he shall forfeit one year of his effective years as counted for the distribution of this fund.

Resolved, That the preachers pay their five dollars to the Secretary of the Conference and receive proper credit therefore.

FORM OF STATEMENT OF CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS.

1. Name?
2. Postoffice address?
3. What is your relation to Conference?

REPORTS OF PRESIDING ELDERS.

CONNERSVILLE DISTRICT.

Dear Fathers and Brethren: We entered upon the work of this year with faith and in much hope, for we believe that works and faith will always be rewarded with good and permanent results. We have given our best efforts to the work of this district, and feel that something has been accomplished.

It has been a year of good spiritual success. It has not been a year of sweeping revivals, yet several of the brethren have had most excellent results from their extra efforts. It has been a year of steady, progressive growth in most of the charges.

In some of the charges we have had hinderances that will militate against the results in the benevolences.

Rev. A. F. Ayres was transferred, last December, to the Central Ohio Conference and stationed at West Unity. I secured the services of Rev. C. H. Muse, of Pennsylvania, to fill out the year, and he has done well.

Rev. C. E. Lewis, was appointed to the Carthage Circuit last year, and did good work up to his third quarterly meeting, which he attended, but returning to the parsonage from the church on Sabbath evening, May 21, he never again went out to active work, but in two short weeks, on June 5, 1893, he fell asleep in Jesus. Brother Lewis was an able preacher and excellent pastor; a self-sacrificing, faithful and earnest Methodist preacher. He lived a victor; he died a conqueror.

I secured the service of Rev. G. N. Logan, a local preacher, and, while he has done as well as one could, yet the benevolences, on account of the stringency in finances of the country, will not be more than one-half as much as last year.

Rev. J. W. Mendell has had a year of most excellent success on the Morristown work, but through a mistake, while somewhat indisposed, he took half an ounce of quinine, which came near relieving him from earthly cares. He has, in a measure, recovered.

I was enabled to secure the services of Rev. J. M. Wines, who has filled his appointments for over two months past.

The benevolences, in the aggregate, may be affected to some degree by the above factor, but some of the charges are in the advance of last year. It has been our aim to secure a more systematic and intelligent bestowment of the gifts of our people to the benevolences of the Church. If all the ministerial brethren would adopt the plan of our Book of Discipline, and carefully and faithfully present each cause to each congregation, we think there would be a great advance in the amounts secured for this part of church work.

There are a few organizaitons of the Woman's Home and Woman's Foreign Missionary Societies in the district.

It is my judgment that where these societies are in active operation there is a larger contribution to the parent board. Missionary intelligence produces missionary zeal and an increase in the gifts to these causes.

We have twenty-six Epworth League Chapters with an aggrigate membership of fourteen hundred.

We held our Fourth Annual Convention in the Grand Avenue Maplewood Methodist Church, in this city, August 16 and 17. It was the largest in attendance and most enthusiastic of any yet held. It has been our aim to have a league in each society, and by this marvelous and well adopted part of church machinery drill all our young people in some kind of church work. I fear some of our ministerial and lay brethern do not appreciate this systematic, organized effort as they should.

A well organized Epworth League in each society in Methodism means a power for intelligent Christian work, a mighty uplift and an onward march toward the salvation of the world.

The Sunday-Schools are in a prosperous condition. There are seventy-two schools, about nine hundred teachers and six thousand scholars. What a grand army being trained and drilled for Christ! These schools are loyal to our published Sunday-School literature, which in our judgment is equal to any and surpassed by no publishing house in this country.

We held one Ministerial Institute at Maplewood, May 29, 30 and 31, 1893. It was perhaps the most largely attended and successful held for years. The papers read and the discussions were indicative of a high order of intelligence and of industrious research

The ministers of Connersville District hold and declare the doctrines of Methodism without adulteration or minification. We have no teachers of the so-called "higher criticism," or modified rationalism, or disguised infidelity among us. With one accord they hold the Bible to be the word of God, and affirm the penalties of sin here and hereafter, and offer a full and free salvation in Jesus Christ, and protest by word and conduct against the social corruption of our day and times. They are against the dance, card playing and theatre going, and all corrupting worldly amusements. Our pulpits are clear toned and courageous on all moral issues. We have eighty-two church buildings in this district, valued at $220,000 with less than $2,500 debt on them. We have twenty-three good parsonages, valued at $25,000 with less than $500 debt. We challange any district in Methodism to present as good and elegent church buildings and parsonages of such value with so small an indebtedness.

We dedicated a splendid new Gothic church, costing $1,500, at Sandusky, Milroy Circuit, on June 11, 1893. There has been expended several hundred dollars on repairing and beautifying our church property over the district.

A new parsonage was purchased at Waldron, for the Waldron Circuit, and a new church has had its foundation laid at Geneva, on the same circuit, to cost $1,200. Rev. Wilber S. Smith deserves credit for the above work.

Three thousand dollars was raised in the Connersville church the past year, and this beautiful church and property is free from debt.

For the most part all our church property is in good repair, and much of it new.

We have a problem of much concern to us, presented with increased force each year, and that is, what is to be done for many of the societies on several circuits? As the country increases in age and wealth, the former members of these societies move to county seats, leaving such societies less in number and weaker in ability; hence, unless we shall be able, in some way, to meet this embarrassment and solve this problem, we must abandon a number of good churches. I could, with great profit to these weaker societies, and to a few neglected communities, employ a good evangelist this coming year, had I the means for his support. I am satisfied many souls could thus be saved, and a number of new societies formed and many weak ones be strengthened. Permit me to suggest that this would be a splendid field for the work of the Woman's Home Missionary Society. Would it be within the fulfillment of the purpose and the design of that organization? I am sure the results of such an investment of these funds would bring a large interest in the salvation of souls, and the building up the church and the strengthening of the weak societies.

The pastors, for the most part, have all been doing excellent work. I may not here mention all of these noble men and their work.

Glenwood, Arlington, Morristown, Saint Paul, Rushville, Connersville, Liberty, College Corner, Fairfield, Maplewood and Brookville Circuit all have had good revivals.

The other charges have all had conversions and accessions.

About one thousand souls have been converted or reclaimed and over eight hundred have united with the church on probation and by letter.

You will pardon me if I speak of the only man and charge whose seperation takes place by our law of time limit.

Rev. R. Roberts, D. D., has closed his fifth year with this noble and royal people of Connersville. The success of these years of harmonious effort and toil of this pastor and people can not be fully measured by figures. Hundreds of souls have been converted and six hundred and twenty-seven have been added to the church or probation and by letter.

The parsonage has been repaired and made comfortable, a veritable home, at a cost of $1,300. This beautiful, magnificient and substantial building in which we now hold this session of our Conference has been erected at a cost not far from $40,000.

Dr. Roberts will leave this charge free of debt and with perfect harmony among all the membership and with the largest Sabbath-School, church membership and spiritual working force of any charge in this district, if not in the Conference.

We sustain a loss in the death of our beloved brother, Rev. C. E. Lewis. He fell asleep in Jesus June 5, 1893, in the parsonage at Carthage, Ind. "For to him, to live was Christ, to die was gain."

Rev. Drs. J. H. and Cory Ford had born to them a lovely son. But a few days he blessed the home of his birth and was not, for God took him. It was sad indeed to these two noble and consecrated hearts that their son Paul should so soon pass from the earthly to the heavenly home. But they were enabled, under divine grace, to say, "Thy will be done."

There are two widows of our deceased ministerial brethern in the bounds of this district, Mrs. S. W. McMahon and Mrs. Wm. Harrison. These elect ladies are in their usual health.

There are three superannuated ministers—Rev. J. W. Mellender, Rev. N. F. Tower and Rev. D. C. Benjamine. These all are true men of God. The weight of years is telling on these brethren, but they are cheerful and happy, and useful in the charges where they live.

On August 19 Dr. Mellender lost his home and most of his household goods by fire; no insurance. This is a heavy loss for a man who is seventy-eight years of age, with scarcely sufficient income from all sources for the necessities of life. Let the ministry and the laity lend a helping hand to our beloved Brother Mellender and assist him to replace his home again in a comfortable condition. Brethren, remember this father in Israel who, with small compensation and great sacrifice and hard toil, helped to make the present pleasant charges we occupy a possibility.

Rev. Thomas B. McClain and wife have just closed their thirty-second year of itinerate ministry. They have given the prime of their life to this work. They have been happy, useful and successful, but, after due prayer and thought, Brother McClain asks, on account of his impaired health, a superannuated relation. He bears the kindliest feelings to all his brethren, and his heart is full of love for the Church. It is always a sad hour in any man's life when he must, for any cause, turn aside from the more active duties of his calling.

We shall always be pleased to see Brother and Sister McClain among us, and should health permit to return to active work again, we shall give them a welcome.

The past year has been one of labor and grave responsibility. I feel grateful to our Heavenly Father for good health, and thankful to my ministerial and lay brethren for their hearty co-operation and hospitality. This short record only partially discloses the work wrought by these noble ministers and laymen in this field. We have gone forth sowing the seed not unmindful of what the Psalmer said: "They that sow in tears shall reap in joy. He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him."

J. A. SARGENT.

INDIANAPOLIS DISTRICT.

This has been another prosperous year. There is much cause for devout thanksgiving. The pastors were promptly at their posts. One supply resigned after his first Sunday's work. All the other pastors have done a full year's work, save a brief period of illness of one or two. About 720 have united with the church on probation and by letter, and will nearly all be saved to the church. The Sunday-schools have been well managed, and the attendance has been largely increased. Twenty of the charges have the Epworth League organized. Four stations have the Christian Endeavor. It is regretted that there are yet eight charges that have no young people's society organized, but there is hope in the future for them. In many of the charges children have been organized into junior leagues.

The Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Societies are well organized in the district, and are proposing to lengthen their cords and strengthen their stakes, until every charge shall be brought within the pale of their influence.

The district has, by its various church organizations, and by special efforts locally exerted, kept itself abreast with the great movements of the day. Thus it is demonstrated that the church is the most potent factor against the evils of the times. Thirteen of these charges are within the corporate limits of the capital city, while four more are easily accessible by the various street car lines. These vary in strength from the class of forty members, paying the pastor $100, to great metropolitan churches with 1,000 members and $3,000 salary. To aid the weaker classes, the District Domestic Missionary Society was formed, under the provision of the constitution of the Conference Domestic Missionary Society. The pastor and one layman from each charge, chosen by the pastor or appointed by the Quarterly Conference, constitute the society. Officers were elected, measures for missionary work in the district were discussed, and an apportionment of $374 was made to the charges to raise for the district work. Under the auspices of this society Dr. John gave a lecture on the question, "Is the Individual Acquainted with Providence?" From this lecture, which was given in Roberts Park Church, on last St. Patrick's Day, the net proceeds were $55. It is much desired that this society shall have greater influence in the district.

Perhaps no investment for the cause would bring a larger revenue of souls and of material returns than that of $1,000 a year to the district missions. A new circuit of five societies could be formed in the counties of Jackson and Brown if we had $200 to start with, and it is felt that such a charge righty manned would be self-supporting in a year. Direct attention, however, has been given to this class of work in the rapidly developing suburbs of Indianapolis. Roberts Park, with Dr. Van Anda, has given valuable help to a field north of Fall Creek known as Hyde Park. Central Avenue, with Dr. Buchtel, has given timely financial aid to the work in the eastern part of the city called East Park. Barth Place, with F. M. Ramsey, a local deacon, as pastor; Woodside, with D. W. Noble, a live young preacher, as pastor; Oak Hill, with B. F. Morgan, the veteran evangelist, as pastor: Clifford Avenue, with Dr. Tincher, the great preacher, as pastor; and Lincoln Avenue, with J. W. Field, a superannuate of the Southern Illinois Conference, as pastor, and North Indianapolis, with L. A.

Retts, a superannuate of the North Indiana Conference, as pastor, have all been operated on a self-supporting basis. They have all done well. They give great promise as to their future, yet they all need more or less financial help. Most notable among these, perhaps, is the work under Dr. Tincher. This old hero of forty-seven years of active ministry has made the removal of his church the crowning act of his last year in ministerial work. An exchange of lots was secured from Mr. John Furnas, by which the church was the gainer in the difference in the value of the lots, estimated to be $1,000. As an expression of gratitude for this liberal donation by Mr. Furnas, the Quarterly Conference, by a unanimous vote, changed the name of the church from Clifford Avenue to Furnas Place, a name that is at once taking and suggestive.

Brothers Rawls, Cochran and Northcott, pastors, respectively, of Edwin Ray, Hall Place and Seventh Street, are three splendid young men who are deservedly popular with their people. Brother Edwards is at the end of his fourth year in Fletcher Place Church. His people were never more spiritual, nor the pastor, either, than during this year. Dr. Buchtel is a general who commands his army well. His membership since his pastorate has increased 300. And his missionary collection has gone up from $225 to $735, while the doctor has the distinction of getting the largest salary paid to any Methodist preacher in the State. His people know a general when they see him, even if he be in Denver, and such a one they "call."

Dr. Van Anda has been universally popular at Roberts Park. His people desired to keep him the full five years. But having an opportunity to be appointed to Emanuel Church, Evanston, Illinois, it was thought that justice to him and his family required that the church give him up. Not only his own people, but the Methodists of the city regret to part with him. His work is of the highest order.

Doctors Wells and Chafee close their third years in their respective charges. Both are great preachers. Time touches their locks, but abates not their pulpit powers.

Brothers Cooper and Robertson have brought up their charges well. They are all-around men capable of filling any place.

Brothers Crawford, Mead, Wimmer, Watkins, Wycoff and J. Wesley Edwards are not only young men of promise for to-morrow, but they are successful to-day.

Brother Watkins built a new house of worship at Marietta costing $2,300. It is a gem.

Brothers Hall, Neal and Sterrett, local preachers in charge, are men of talent and acquirement above the ordinary. Brother Sterrett has had three new churches in his charge dedicated within a year.

Brother Lee has put in a new pipe organ, making improvements at Franklin costing $2,400. His year has resulted in great good every way. Brother Troyer has aroused the people of New Palestine to greater vigor. He is very popular.

Brother Reynolds has proven himself just the man to develop the latent forces at Brightwood. They are a new people, mostly railroaders, inexperienced in church finances. Brother Reynolds' system for raising money for the church is good anywhere, but it is superior when well worked in a new charge. To bring order out of chaotic conditions has been a tax upon the pastor's strength, but he has succeeded well.

Rev. G. W. Cohagen has made a fine record in this his first year at Fairland. Old Center Church was razed to the foundation and a new building ten feet longer, with two small class-rooms, tower and bell, were placed there complete. But a greater work is going on at Fairland. Having secured $6,000 in reliable subscriptions the pastor with his corps of co-workers undertook the erection of a fine brick church edifice which will involve an outlay of about $8,000. They expect to occupy it before the next winter.

The time limit removes Dr. Tinsley from Shelbyville. His people would gladly keep him longer if the law of the church permitted. They speak of him as "the eloquent preacher," "the faithful pastor," "the perfect man."

The success of Rev. M. A. Farr at West Street, Shelbyville, is too well known to require a lengthy statement here. Perhaps the first thing to be done upon his return after Conference will be to build a large addition to his church. The present building, less than two years old, has long been crowded "from cellar to garret." Often standing room is at a premium. Methodism is strong in Shelbyville.

Seven new churches in the district have been dedicated within the year. One at Christiansburg, Freetown Circuit, October 2, 1892; cost, $600. Another at Glenns Valley, October 9, 1892, Southport Circuit; old one remodeled, and a class-room 14x26 added, costing $900. A third was at North Indianapolis, December 18, 1892, Dr. D. H. Moore, officiating. A large addition, greater than the former, was added to the former, costing $2,300. Fourth, at Kurtz, a new town on the new Evansville & Richmond Railroad, dedicated May 7, 1893, costing an even $1,000. It has been added to the Freetown Circuit. The fifth was at Marietta, May 14, 1893, mentioned above. The sixth was a new building above the ashes of the old one, at Bethel, on the Georgetown Circuit. It was dedicated May 21, 1893. It cost in material and labor, which are cheap in Brown County, about $600. The seventh was the Center Church, on the Fairland Circuit, dedicated September 3, 1893, at a cost of $2,000, making a total of $8,700 expended on new buildings. Acton Circuit has had improvements made worth nearly $600. Other charges have made repairs and improvements which the statistics will show to have reached hundreds more. But time would fail me to tell of all the good deeds of the noble men who have so faithfully served the several charges of the district during the year.

I believe that these men have done the best they could If any think they could have done better, I trust that the Presiding Bishop may give them a chance to do it during the coming year.

Rev. J. P. Pell, of Fairland, one of the excellent of earth, and Rev. Wm. Nichols, of New Palestine, likewise worthy, are superannuates living within the bounds of the district. They are venerable and revered.

Rev. J. S. Tevis, D. D., has preached many times for our pastors, and has kept up a lively correspondence for the Western Christian Advocate. He is growing old gracefully.

Rev. Wm. H. Kendrick, M. D., of Grace Church, Indianapolis, a supernumerary, has done much valuable work for the church in past years, but is at present in poor health. He longs for renewed strength that he may open up one of the promising mission fields in the city.

Among the memoirs will be that of Rev. John A. Brouse, whose name is identified with the history of early Methodism in Indiana. He entered into rest January 13, 1893.

Honorable mention of preachers' widows may be made of Mrs. Noble, Greenwood; Mrs. McClain, Fletcher Place; Mrs. A. A. Jones, Brightwood; Mrs. Montgomery, Shelbyville; Mrs. Adam Scott, Clear Springs; Mrs. Potts and Mrs. Beswick, Hall Place; Mrs. Andrus and Mother Lynch, Central Avenue; elect ladies, all of them. Grand old mother Lynch, out of the depths of her affliction, cries to heaven for her release, but awaits patiently for the summons. On September 9 she met with another fall and disabled her right arm; yet she is thinking of us in Conference to-day. Yesterday she said, "Say to the Conference I love the brethren."

Twice within the year death cast his shadow athwart the threshold of Brother Morgan. Little Frankie died in October. Baby Bennie, born in April, died in July. Profound sympathy is felt for our beloved brother and his devoted wife.

In closing, it is my duty and privilege to record the unnumbered acts of kindness and friendly consideration that have been shown me by the pastors and their families, and by the laymen, without exception, wherever I have gone in the performance of the arduous duties required at my hands. Such unstinted appreciation of all my efforts to serve the Master, and His people, burdens me with a sense of obligation, and I can only say that it is my greatest joy to share with God's people on earth the toils of His exalted service, and at the same time anticipate the hour when, with them, I shall attain the glory of an eternal heaven.

J. W. DASHIELL.

JEFFERSONVILLE DISTRICT.

Jeffersonville District has over ten thousand members. There are eighty-eight societies, with twenty-six pastoral charges. Soon after the session of the last Annual Conference, the pastors were busy in their charges.

Failing to procure the brother from Ohio recommended by Bishop Ninde, I secured the services of W. F. Parks for the Elizabethtown Circuit. Brother Parks served very acceptably for a few months and resigned. John German, a former student of DePauw, was then secured. His work was acceptable to the people, who desire his return for another year.

In April, F. S. Stamm, of Scottsburg, was transferred to the North Indiana Conference. After some delay, A. R. Jones was procured for the work. He finished out the year in a very satisfactory way, and is here ready for work the coming year.

Our new church at Brownstown is an ornament to the county seat of Jackson County, and Brother Fletcher deserves much praise for his wisdom and energy in pushing the work of building.

George M. Smith and his liberal people at North Vernon were made happy when Dr. Earl Cranston announced that the debt was provided for, and, therefore, he would dedicate the house. The church is a beautiful one, and compares well with any in the Conference.

The people at the south end of Jeffersonville, assisted by the members of Wall Street, have erected a beautiful chapel, which was dedicated by Rev. V. W. Tevis, at which time the indebtedness was met.

J. T. Jones was not willing to come to Conference without finishing New Liberty Church, on the Holman Circuit. The church was thus finished, and was dedicated by the Presiding Elder, September 3. This society has done exceedingly well. Their church is paid for.

Sister Peter Myers, mother of the wife of Dr. Dashiell, made provision in her will for a pipe organ for Wall Street Church, Jeffersonville.

Over $500 have been spent on the church at Sellersburg, under efficient and zealous labors of E. L. Sanders.

E. E. Miller, pastor at New Washington, has superintended repairs on his charge; and W. B. Grimes, of Crothersville, has kept pace with those named, and Cana Church has been thoroughly repaired.

There have been during the year quite a number of good revivals. Brothers Conner, Ryan, Perry, Grimes, Currant, O'Neal, Murphy, Park, Miller, Jewett and J. S. Campbell had excellent meetings, resulting in from ten to over one hundred accessions in each charge.

The benevolent collections have been carefully looked after, and the indications are that they will surpass last year.

Special mention ought to be made of Port Fulton, G. H. Murphy, pastor, as having given $177 for missions; other collections in proportion.

Epworth League Chapters have been organized in almost every charge. Some of these chapters have been of great advantage to the Church.

Our Sabbath-schools are doing well, and they use our own publications.

There has been quite an increase in subscriptions to the Western Christian Advocate, and many have enjoyed reading the excellent premium books.

The allowed salaries are not what they should be. The aggregate of the members of the Conference is $18,385, or an average of $875.50 per pastor. Of these amounts there will be, I think, but about $200 deficiency.

Class and prayer meetings are kept up in many of the societies with good results.

The District Camp Meeting was held on our grounds, at Deputy, from August 10 to 22. Attendance large, order good, and results encouraging. Collection for Conference claimant fund, $1.16.

The health of the ministers and their families has been good.

Brother Wolfe and wife, of Lexington Circuit, were sadly bereaved in the loss of their little boy at the age of nine months.

Two of our local preachers, J. S. Vancleve, of Courtland, and W. F. Park, of Otisco, have died. They were good men, always willing to work, and their societies will miss them.

As this closes my term on the district, it may not be out of place to make a brief review. During the term I have had associated with me sixty-two ministers. Of this number three have transferred. Two, Bros. Joseph Cotton and W. W. Snyder, after serving in the active work for over forty years each, were superannuated, at their request. Bros. Adam Scott and John K. Pye, two faithful men, have died. Bro. Pye showed to the church that he was able to do his best work after passing fifty years of age, for never in all his pastorate did he do more efficient work than at Seymour, where he died. My association with the ministers and their families has been exceedingly pleasant. I have tried to be honest with the charges and the pastors; always tried to be ready to talk with the ministers about their charges or their appointments. Only two ministers have been with me the entire term—Bros. Lowden and V. W. Tevis. Quite a number of others three and five years each. This shows that I have tried to move brethren across the line when they wanted to go and I could make the move to their advantage.

During my term we have built ten new churches, bought and repaired one, while nearly all the others have either been remodeled or repaired. About all the territory is occupied, and we have not a shabby church in the district.

With this report I close my thirtieth year in the itineracy.

At Columbus, where I was admitted, eighty-four ministers received appointments from the Bishop. Only nine of these men are now active in the Conference, and perhaps at the close of this session there will be but seven, showing that thirty years nearly entirely changes a Conference.

Brethren in the ministry have cheerfully assisted me in the work, and the laymen have always been ready to help me and make me feel at home; for all of which I am truly thankful.

I think I can safely say that Jeffersonville District is in a much better condition than ever before, and highly honored may my successor feel.

When I think of the eminent men I have followed—Drs. G. L. Curtiss, G. P. Jenkins, J. G. Chafee, Sampson Tincher, F. A. Hester and E. S. Wood—remarkable in their intellectual attainments, ministerial strength, executive ability and faithfulness to Christ and His Church, I give to the Master all the glory that he has permitted one of the least of His servants to make so good a report.

A. N. MARLATT, P. E.

REPORT OF THE PRESIDING ELDER OF MOORE'S HILL DISTRICT.

At the close of our last annual session there were twenty-five charges in the District to which pastors were appointed, of whom twenty-two were members of Conference and three were supplies.

During the year C. E. Line, pastor of Moore's Hill Station, was transferred to the North-West Kansas Conference, and T. G. Cocks, a member of the Kentucky Conference, a student of Moore's Hill College, was appointed to fill out the Conference year, leaving the District at the close of the year with twenty-one pastors members of the Conference and four charges supplied.

That they have been faithful to their charges is evident from their quarterly reports, having made 8,055 pastoral visits, preached 3,587 sermons, administered baptism to 458 persons, attended 321 funerals, and solemnized 218 marriages. We learn from the same source that their labors have not been in vain.

We have 77 churches and 18 parsonages, valued at $225,900. Amount paid for building and improving churches and parsonages, $10,939. This includes a donation to the church in Aurora of $1,000 by Mrs. Fisher for a memorial window, and a donation of a library valued at $600 to the Aurora Sunday-School by Miss Cotter; also the building of a new and beautiful church at Westport, dedicated January 8, 1893, with ample subscription to pay all indebtedness incurred in building.

The diligence of our preachers in pushing forward these enterprises, and the liberality of our people in their contributions to make these improvements possible, is worthy of commendation. The same liberality has been manifested in liquidating all claims against our church property, $1,335 having been paid on account of old debts, leaving the present indebtedness only $2,146 on all the church property of the District, and all of this secured by reliable subscriptions except $1,000.

It is a matter of regret that the exact amount of collections for our benevolent societies could not be ascertained in time for this report. Our preachers have labored hard, some of them, if not all of them, going from house to house to collect subscriptions, with the hope of reaching the amount reported last year. Should they succeed in collecting the amount subscribed, they are confident of being in advance of last year. It has been impossible to ascertain the amount contributed to each cause, but the total amount for all the causes is estimated at the sum of $4,448, which is a slight advance.

The total amount apportioned for ministerial support was	$18,248
Amount paid	17,512
Deficiency	$736

The contributions for all purposes, including the amounts already mentioned, with current expenses, Sunday-School expenses, and other collections will be $43,454.

Our preachers have been faithful to our church publications, not only in the sale of our books, but in securing seven hundred subscribers to our church periodicals, not including one thousand subscribers for the World Wide Missions and Sunday-School literature. We have seventy Sunday-Schools, with 937 officers and teachers, and 6,522 scholars, all but two of which use our own church publications, which is quite an advance over any previous year. From this important department of church work, large additions to the roll of the redeemed is confidently anticipated in the near future.

Moore's Hill College has enjoyed another year of great prosperity, and from indications at the opening exercises and attendance, September 12, the coming year bids fair to be in advance of last year. Rev. J. H. Martin, D. D., has been re-elected President, and Rev. C. W. Lewis, Professor, both members of our Annual Conference, and their re-appointment to this important work is respectfully requested. More definite information in regard to this College and the good work it is doing for our church and Conference, as well as its needs, will doubtless be given in the report of the Committee on Education. Some of our preachers have been successful in certain lines of work, which it would be a pleasure to mention in this report, but time will not permit. Others, equally zealous, would have been as efficient in the same kind of work but lacked opportunity. For the same reason an account of the Presiding Elder's labors is omitted.

As we are all workers together in the Lord's vineyard for the advancement of His kingdom, we cheerfully omit all mention of our labors, trials, and sacrifices, rejoicing in that we are counted worthy of a place in the ministry, and if we have accomplished results, it has been in His name and to His name be all the glory.

MEMOIRS.

MRS. LONGDON.

Sarah Elizabeth Longdon, daughter of James and Charlotte Boyer, was born in Charlestown, Ind., July 11, 1838.

She received her education in the public schools and Charlestown Academy. At the age of twelve she embraced religion and joined the Methodist Church, and from that time on until smitten down by disease, she was distinguished for her diligence and faithfulness in every means of grace, taking an active part in every good work, but specially interested in the service of sacred song. She had a lovely and well-cultivated voice, and from the time of her conversion until it was destroyed by disease and lost in death, it may be truthfully said that her voice was one of prayer and praise and thanksgiving to God.

She was united in marraige to the Rev. Samuel Longdon, of the South-East Indiana Conference, November 10, 1859.

Into the exacting, laborious, but to her, always pleasant life of an itinerant preacher's wife, she brought her gifts and graces and laid them unreservedly on the altar of Him to whom she had early in life dedicated her all, and wherever she went she was the honored instrument of bringing many souls to Christ.

Meek, unselfish, joyous, hopeful, loving, she constrained those who knew her by the example of her life to follow Christ. Her ear and eye and heart were keenly appreciative of the beautiful, and her passionate love for music and flowers and children ceased only with life itself.

Eighteen years ago with her husband, who took a superanuated relation, she came to Greencastle and united with Locust Street Church. Here she showed that same fidelity and zeal which had characterized her former life. As a teacher of the infant class in the Sunday-School, the leader of the choir, a regular participant in the services of the prayer and class meeting, she did her utmost for the Master's kingdon.

September the 10th, 1887, her youngest son died of typhoid fever. This was a stroke from the effects of which she never recovered, and three years ago last Christmas, she had an attack of the grippe, which terminated in consumption.

Every effort was made and every means employed to save her precious life, but all in vain. A short time before her death she repeated and asked to have sung the stanza:

"Safe in the arms of Jesus,
Safe from corroding care,
Safe from the world's temptations,
Sin can not harm me there."

Her last conscious breath was one of prayer, and she constantly testified to the sustaining power of Christ.

She was graciously relieved from her great suffering at 9:30 A. M., September 14, 1893, but she still lives in the memory of the hundreds of children whom she has taught in the Sabbath-School, the multitudes whom she brought to Christ and of her own immediate friends and family, over whose lives she has shed a holy inspiration.

CHARLES E. LEWIS.

Rev. Charles Edwin Lewis, of the South-Eastern Indiana Conference, and pastor of Carthage Circuit, died on Monday morning, at 7:40 o'clock, June 5, 1893, of blood poisoning.

He was born in Harveysburg, Warren County, Ohio, February 21, 1838. When quite young he went to Iowa, and attended Cornell College and the Iowa Wesleyan University, and was for a number of years engaged in teaching.

He was licensed to preach, and received into the Kansas Conference in 1863, and filled the following appointments in Kansas: De Soto, Gardner and Olathe.

He was elected Superintendent of Public Instruction, and served in that relation while pastor at Olathe.

He was three years on Oswego District, being the youngest Presiding Elder in his Conference, and probably the youngest Presiding Elder in the West.

Next he was stationed at Emporia. He was then transferred to the North-Western Indiana Conference, and for one summer served as Bible agent, and then was appointed to the following appointments: Clermont, Colfax, Battle Ground, Rossville and Covington.

He was then transferred to the Iowa Conference, and stationed at West Liberty and Montezuma.

He was then transferred to the South-Eastern Indiana Conference, and appointed to Irvington, Mapleton, Southport and Carthage.

He was ordained Deacon by Bishop Scott, March 19, 1865, and was ordained Elder by Bishop Ames, March 17, 1867.

He married Jennie D. Lowe, October 17, 1861. His wife died July 19, 1890. He married Anna Webb, of Southport, October 14, 1891.

Early in his sickness it was difficult for him to converse. He said to me: "I find it much harder to suffer the will of the Lord than to do his will." Also, "The religion that I have been recommending to others so long now comforts my soul."

I was with him when he went down into the "valley of the shadow of death." He quietly went to sleep.

D. C. BENJAMINE.

JOHN A. BROUSE.

John A. Brouse was born in Hillsboro, Ohio, March 29, 1808, and closed his earthly labors at Rockford, Ills., in March, 1893. He was converted to God and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church in September, 1827, and immediately thereafter felt the drawings of the Holy Spirit toward the Gospel ministry.

In September, 1831 he was licensed to preach, and in 1833 was admitted into the Indiana Conference as a traveling preacher.

The opportunities of the ministry in that early day for a classical education being meager, Brother Brouse entered upon his life work with a meager education, but what he lacked in this direction was supplied by the Holy Spirit in the power and demonstration of which he went forth proclaiming the Gospel of a risen Christ.

One of his early appointments was Logansport, a circuit with a small center, but with no boundary. Here he laid the foundation upon which now stands four of the leading stations of North Indiana Conference, in two of which the writer spent six years as pastor, and where the memory and influence of Brother Brouse still linger as a sweet savor of life unto life.

Brother Brouse spent thirty-seven years in the active ministry, in the earlier years of which he shared all the hardships, exposures and dangers of the pioneer fathers.

During his ministry he filled the following appointments: 1833, Crawfordsville and Greencastle; 1834, Princeton; 1835, Logansport; 1836, Terre Haute; 1837, College Agent; 1838, Lafayette; 1839, Corydon; 1840 to 1843, superannuated; 1844, Greensburg; 1845, Chaplain of the Prison South; 1846-47, Charlestown; 1848, Utica; 1849 to 1851, Lawrenceburg District; 1852 to 1855, Jeffersonville District; 1856, Franklin; 1857-58, Southport; 1859, Columbus; 1860, Agent of the Colonization Society; 1861, Indianapolis District; 1862, Agent of the Colonization Society; 1863-64, Army Chaplain; 1865 to 1868, Conference Financial Agent; 1869 to 1893, superannuated.

During his superannuated period he supplied Ninth Street, at Rockford, Ill., in 1871-72, and Davis' Junction, Ill., in 1873.

This, in brief, is the written ministerial history of this pioneer in Indiana Methodism. What the unwritten history is we may not now have the capacity to read. Only this, every self-sacrificial deed of a consecrated life performed for the glory of God in the name of Jesus Christ, is an immortal thing. No human soul may ever be able to outrun such deeds; but on and on, through the endless marches of eternity they will unroll along our pathway, as a carpet of ever intensifying splendor for immortal feet moving upward and forever to higher and still higher spheres of life divine and glory eternal.

Along such an highway let the eye of charity look for the ascending foot-prints of our departed brother.

His faults and weaknesses we bury beneath the cloud of our own frailties and imperfections. All that was true and noble and God-like we enshrine in our hearts and memories.

Catching the fires of inspiration from the heroic in the life of the battle-scarred veteran, we close up the gap created by his departure. We stand heart to heart on the same battle-field where he fought, and with the gleams of hope and victory flashing from eye to eye, we march on to conquer the world with the love that floods the ages from the broken heart of the human Son of God—the divine son of man.

The mortal remains of Brother Brouse rest in Crown Hill Cemetery, at Indianapolis.

J. H. FORD.

REV. GEORGE W. WINCHESTER.

Rev. George W. Winchester was born, seventy years ago, in Jefferson County, Indiana. His parents were members of the Baptist Church, but their sons, John and George, for doctrinal reasons, preferred the Methodist Church.

The deceased was possessed of a sound, healthful body, which served him well in the hardships through which he passed in his long and faithful ministry. He was never known to spare himself by neglecting any needful work; but in sunshine and storm he was ever in his place to preach the gospel, which he loved better than he loved life. Industry was the law of his life, not only in the work of the church, but in temporal things as well. Indeed, it behooved the ministers of forty years ago to be very economical, because of the meager salaries they received. Brother Winchester was never indolent or idle, but his delight was in a life of activity.

As to his education, he did not receive that college training for which he had hoped and planned. He had saved, by strict economy while yet a young man, sufficient means to give him an ordinary college education, but at this period of his young manhood he was taken sick, and this sickness being protracted and severe, his means were exhausted in paying doctor's bills. This greatly deranged his plans, and his active life began as a farmer, and while thus engaged he was married to Olive Manser, September 28, 1847, by James E. Tiffany.

He soon began to talk to his wife of the unhappiness of his life, because there was a profound impression upon him that he ought to preach. His wife advised him to yield to this impression, and, after fighting it for five years, he yielded himself to God for the work of the Christian ministry, and, under the counsel of Rev. J. A. Brouse (who preceded him to the heavenly country only a few months), he was admitted on trial at Rushville, Ind., in 1852, Bishop Baker presiding at the Conference. Two years later he was admitted to the Conference at Greensburg, Ind., Bishop Simpson presiding, and ordaining him Deacon. Those admitted with him were: Henry B. Hibben, Isaac Cherington, J. S. Tevis, G. P. Jenkins and W. W. Bailey. Two years subsequent to this he was ordained Elder at Madison, Ind., by Bishop Waugh.

His first charge was Lawrenceburg Circuit, where he developed a special tact as a church builder, the church at Bellview being completed and a new one built at Sugar Grove in the first year of his ministry. His next charge was at Milan, then Versailles, then Lexington, then London, then Carthage, where two more churches were built on the work. He was next appointed to Milroy, then to Manchester, then Hartford, then three years at Mt. Carmel, during which time two new churches were built—one at Springfield and another at Colter's Corner. Following this came two years at Milton, and then one year at Blooming Grove, where another church was built under his supervision.

He was next appointed to Carthage, this being his second term in that charge, and here he labored most successfully for three years, and another church was built. Then three years at Hope, followed by one year at Milford, two years at Waldron, two years at Palestine, two years on Greensburg Circuit, one year at Clarksburg, one at Milroy, one at Metamora, two at Glenwood, two at Fairfield, and two at St. Paul, which closed an active ministry of thirty-nine years, with churches and parsonages built or repaired in almost every charge. At the Conference in Aurora, two years ago, being no longer strong in body, and because of the enfeebled condition of his faithful and devoted wife, it was thought best for him to retire, which he did with much reluctance. While not able to work longer in the active ranks, still it was the disappointment of his life, and he frequently said he did not care to live if he could not preach the gospel. His words seemed prophetic, for in less than eighteen months from the time of his retirement he was translated to his reward to the Church triumphant. He departed this life March 3, 1893.

His life was one of implicit trust in the justice and goodness of God. His conversion came after six months of earnest seeking. Calvin Ruter was preaching, when suddenly his soul was quickened with joy and he rejoiced in sins forgiven. The conversion of his brother John and sister Martha made a deep impression upon his life, and he soon yielded to the influence of the same Divine Spirit. We might all envy such a life as his—a life not only full of monuments in the churches erected, but a life instrumental in the salvation of hundreds of souls to God

Rev. John H. Doddridge, Julius Hood, Wm. Hand and Laird are among his children in the ministry of the Church. God only can know how many shall rise up to call him blessed. Is it any wonder that such a life should end as this one? One of his favorite texts, and one often quoted in his last sickess, was, "I have fought a good fight, I have kept the faith, and there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness; and best of all," said he, "not for me only, but for all His faithful children."

In answer to a letter received a few days before his death, from a brother minister, he sent back this message: "His grace sustains me." He leaves to the faithful companion of his life and to his two daughters the legacy of a life rich in the things of God and radiant with that hope which reaches beyond the grave.

Union Central Life Insurance Co.

Examine our Twenty-Year Guaranty Policy.

Every Minister should have one.

The Best Security for the Family.

The very Best Protection for Old Age.

After five payments have been made on our Guaranty Policy, the Company will loan the full reserve of the Policy.

This is in advance of all others.

Says the Insurance Magazine, Kansas City:

"The perfection of conservative life underwriting."

For several years past its ratio of expense has been steadily decreasing.

Says Insurance, New York:

"A mighty good company for men to join who wish insurance that shall be at once safe and cheap."

It offers two forms of policies which can not be excelled: The Twenty-Payment Guaranty, which is the most economical for life or term insurance, and the Life-Rate Endowment, the best for those who wish investment insurance at low rates. It offers also all the other usual forms of policies.

Says the Vindicator, New Orleans:

"Its success is magnificent."

THE BISHOP

I have made careful inquiry concerning the Union Central Life Insurance Company, and find that it has, among trustworthy men, the credit of being straightforward, upright, and honest in its management.

[Signed] JOHN H. VINCENT,
Bishop of M. E. Church, residing at Buffalo, N. Y.
